TAKE YOUR HAT OFF

"A minute of your time... Think of everything your drug addict puts himself through. Every day he's got damage coming down on him from all directions. Trouble inside and out. Even so, he'll hang on for years. Hair keeps growing. Nails get longer. And all the time, his liver's puffing up and growing spots. Day in, day out, he lives to expire, but it takes him ten years to kick off.

Now bear this in mind, and consider your murderer. He gets three or four seconds to wind a bloke down. That's a fierce compression of time. That's a lifetime of damage jammed into a couple of heartbeats.

A bloke gets the job done in three or four seconds... you've gotta take your hat off to him. Death — the way it's put together, it's just not meant to be easy."
